Death of a Former Citizen of Accomac.

The Boston Daily Globe, in its issue of August the 28th, 1894, published the following:

George W. Ashby, one of Charles-town's best known citizen and business men, died last evening at his home, 61 Elm street, after a long illness with Bright's disease.

He was a native of Accomac county, Va., but was a resident of the Bunker Hill district for about 18 years, and was prominently connected with many of its leading social and secret organizations. During his early life he followed the sea.

He was a 32d degree Mason, and was a member of Coeur de Lion commandery, Knights Templars, King Solomon's lodge, Nonantum tribe of Red Men, Ivanhoe lodge, Knights of Pythias, Mystic lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, Vesta chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Bunker Hill lodge of Odd Fellows, Legion of Honor, and the Home benefit association. In 1892 he was active in the celebration of the Seventeenth of June, and was interested to a large degree in the preparations for the observance made by the Seventeenth of June carnival association.

Many in Accomac will remember Mr. Ashby. He was the son of David and Adah Ashby. His venerable mother and his sister, Mrs. Horace E. Roberts, survive him here, and sorrow with the bereaved wife and daughter, that mourn his loss in his adopted State and home. He died in his fifty-eighth year. He was a christian, and held active church relations. He died in the triumphs of a christian faith. The funeral was marked by very impressive services, conducted by the Rev. R. B. Moody and associated Masonic officials. After the services at the late home of Mr. Ashby, his remains were carried to Nantuxet and there buried. In addition to the burial service of his church, his remains were committed to the earth with the high honors of Masonry in sympathy with the bereaved. Accomac must feel a just pride in a son whose moral and social virtues elevated him to such high esteem and appreciation as that in which he was held by the people of his adopted State and community.

Letters from the People.

MR. EDITOR—As election day approaches, the question of continued fidelity to the Democratic party is uppermost in at least every Southern man's mind. And to answer it requires very little thought, except by those who care nothing for the section in which they live, but would for the sake of a few loaves and fishes for themselves and a few quasi friends, plunge it in chaos and ruin, by placing so far as they can help it the reins of government in the hands of the ignorant and vicious. We rejoice that in Accomac county there are very few of such Anglo-Saxons. This government must continue in the hands of intelligence and virtue and the Democrat who by apathy or any other reason fails of his duty next November, will aid in putting the corrupt and tyrannical Republican party again in power—and that will mean a "force bill" binding us hand and foot in political bondage for all time. No man of sense doubts for a moment, that if the Republican party ever again has the power, it will pass the "force bill." We, the Democratic party, are in the saddle, and let's remain so; and as time rolls along, correct the legislation of the last thirty years of Republican misrule, and brighten the political skies of our country with the pure Democratic doctrines of "ye olden times." Democracy is the salvation of our country. Let's be up and doing Democrats!

DEMOCRAT.

MR. EDITOR—I saw in your paper of last week, that our recent meeting at Locustville resulted in the conversion of about fifty persons. This is a mistake which I wish to correct by your permission, as I do not count persons as converts until they are converted. I will give you the correct number of persons, whom we believe, thoroughly repented of their sins and were soundly converted to God and gave unmistakable evidence of the same. Thirty seven professed saving faith in Jesus Christ as the World's only Saviour, and rejoiced in His pardoning love and thirty have connected themselves with the M. E. Church, South, at that place, and some of the others will join us, and some will join other Methodist churches in that part of the county where they reside. We are indebted to one or two of the brethren of the Presbyterian Church for help in this meeting, and one or two of the Baptist Church. All alike seemed to enjoy the outpouring of the spirit of God upon us. Bro. Hayes, pastor of the M. E. Church, South, at Drummondtown, rendered valuable aid. Altogether we are blessed abundantly, and our church is stronger in the Lord and in the power of His might. We take courage and go forward.
E. F. GARNER, Pastor.

Fairs and Festivals.

A fair and festival will be held at Parkley, October 3rd and 4th, for the benefit of the Parkley M. P. Church. The fair will open at 9 o'clock p. m., of each day. One of the interesting features of the occasion will be a bicycle race the victor receiving a handsome prize. Music by a popular Accomac Band will also enliven the occasion. The public is cordially invited to attend and help a good cause. Every effort will be made to entertain all who may come. If the days appointed are rainy, the fair will take place the first fair day.

COMMITTEE.

The ladies of Wardtown will hold an all-day fair in the grove near the school house, on Thursday, October 4th. Large preparations are being made to entertain a large crowd. There will be prominent speakers on the grounds to help entertain the audience. Proceeds to aid the new church to be built.

Hymenaeal.

The residence of Mr. W. A. Warrington, No. 38 Falkland street, was a scene of joy and beauty yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when the Rev. E. B. Johnson, of Accomac county, editor of the Farmer and Fisherman, and Miss Maggie Virginia Warrington, daughter of Mr. W. A. Warrington, and one of Norfolk's most charming young ladies. The attendants were Mr. Luther B. Hyslop and Miss Fannie M. Warrington, Mr. J. R. Burton and Miss Cynthia Johnson. The bride was attired in a handsome traveling suit and was the recipient of a number of elegant presents. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left on the Washington steamer for a Northern tour. They will reside at Belle Haven Va.—Norfolk Virginian 21st.

A Card.

We would like to have some good farmers club together and ship us four cars of sweets a week—that is, two cars to our Cleveland house, W. E. Bigalow & Co., and two cars to us at Columbus, O. We can handle about that many to advantage. The stock to sell well wants to be smooth and not too large. You had better ship the culls West than the large, overgrown ones. We charge 10 per cent. commission and make prompt returns.

We refer you to L. L. Winder & Co., Nassawadox, Va., and to the National Bank of Columbus, Columbus, O.

Yours truly,

Fatality Among Horses.

A disease, which is believed to be cerebro spinal meningitis, is killing the horses in several sections in upper Accomac. The loss of a dozen or more is reported in the last 10 days in the neighborhoods of Messong and Oak Hall. The disease exists in Somerset county, Md., also, some 30 horses having died in a few days around Westover. Treatment is of little avail to horses attacked by the disease and they die in a day or so after taken with it, sometimes on same day. The symptoms are loss of motor power, evidenced by staggering gait, and partial loss of power of swallowing.
